ATLANTIC

Have your next meeting with a view of Aarhus from the 10th floor! Get inspired by the local Aarhus creativity that hovers over the city's rooftops, let the ideas flow freely. Let the sight of the Aarhus Bay's blue water sharpen your concentration and make decisions while watching the bustling human ants far below on the city streets.

No man can be wise on an empty stomach... And that is why we offer both lunch buffets (small and large) and various lunch dishes as well as coffee/tea, water, fruit and cake.

Book your next meeting experience at +45 8613 1111 or wehelp@hotelatlantic.dk.
